

If English was good enough for Jesus, it's good enough for America.

You know America and Jesus have a lot of things in common:

They both believe in Respect.

Respect your elders.

Respect the law.

Respect the Amendments, especially the Fifth:

Remain silent.

Jesus didn't Occupy Bethlehem.

Jesus said Turn the other cheek.

Jesus meant Be quiet.

If silence was good enough for Jesus, it's good enough for America.

You know silence and English have a lot in common:

They are both what we should be teaching our children.

Our children are the future.

We want them to solve problems, right?

Thinking takes silence.

Don't speak.

Don't ask when you don't understand something.

They'll think you're stupid.

Just nod.

Keep nodding.

Keep your mouth shut.

Don't come on too strong.

Be weak.

The weak shall inherit the Earth.

Get your head out of the stars.

Stop looking for answers there.

The answers are down here.

Stop asking.

We're telling you.

Keep quiet or you'll miss something.

We're trying to make this easy for you.

That's why we have a Bill of Rights.

Welcome to America.

One:

You have the right to choose your own religion.
Unless you want to be president.
Then you have to be Christian.
This is America.
We don't have Muslim presidents, except Obama.
Everyone wants to be president.
Presidents love Jesus.

Two:

You have the right to keep and bear arms.
Do Not let them take away your guns.
Without them, you are not American.
If guns are good enough for America, they're good enough for Jesus.

They don't have Jesus in Afghanistan do they?
You know what they do have?

Muslims.
Like Obama.

Five:

You have the right to remain silent.
Keep Quiet.
We will tell you everything you need to know,
Fair and Balanced.
Speaking only gets you into trouble.
Everything you say can and will be used against you.

Ten:

Don't let the government have too much power.
Power belongs to the people.
Power corrupts.

Don't worry, we'll keep you from getting corrupted.
Just don't give your money to the government.
They'll spend it wrong.
Your money is yours.
Your money does not belong to the poor.
They're lazy.
You work hard.
You do what you're told.
You've earned it.

Spend it how you want.
Just make sure you spend it.
If you don't you're a communist and then the Russians win.

Thirteen:

We abolished slavery.
You're welcome.
Say Thank You.
No, not Gracias.
Speak English.

This is America.

This is the land of the free.
With freedom comes responsibility.
Think responsibly!
That's what The Liberals want us to be teaching in schools.
The Liberals want to corrupt our children.
Teach Abstinence Only.
Thinking only gets you into trouble.
Our children are the future.
Keep their heads out of the stars.
Don't let them dream too much.
Teach them to be silent.
Being silenced builds character.
Being silenced was good enough for Jesus.
That's why we made it your God-given right:

Remain silent.

Do not fight back.
Put your hands up where we can see them.
No.
Not your fists.
Palms open.
Like Jesus.
That's the American way to do it:
Come quietly.

Don't make a scene.
Don't talk out of turn.
Know your place.
Jesus knew his place:
His place was on the Cross.
That's all we remember him for.

That's all they'll remember you for,
not your words.

You have the right to remain silent
We could take that away if we wanted to but we're merciful.
Like Jesus.

This is America.
You're welcome.
